

STUDENT EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

Job Title:	Science Work Study
Rate of Pay:	$7.25
Begin Date:	Immediate
End Date:	06/30/10
Work Site:	Henry Campus Bullhead City, ext. 4423
Supervisor's Name:	Dr. Don Plantz

Specific duties performed on a regular basis:

1. Preparing lab equipment and reagents for Anatomy and Physiology Laboratories.
2. Preparing lab equipment and reagents for Microbiology Laboratories.
3. Tearing down experiments after the laboratory experiments.
4. Providing a second set of eyes to supervise experiments under the direction of the lab instructor for an added level of safety and supervision for students in the laboratory.
5. Assists in organizing paperwork for all courses taught under their direct supervisor.

Skills/Qualifications needed:

1. Have successfully completed all 200 level biology courses with a "B" or better.
2. Be able to demonstrate safe and appropriate laboratory conduct and be able to follow basic laboratory protocols.
3. Have a working knowledge of microbiological techniques utilized in laboratory.
4. Be proficient in preparing reagents and laboratory materials with minimal supervision.
5. Be able to work with direct supervisor to ensure high level of safety in the laboratory setting.

Things your supervisor would like a student employee to understand about working in this department:

Student in this position must have a close working relationship with direct supervisor and maintain a regular dialogue during the work week. Student may be required to assist other work study and/or additional faculty (resident or associate) if additional help is requested or needed.